LOCAL MATTERS.

SENT ON TO THE GRAND JURY FOR MUR-DERING HER CHILD .- A negro woman named Hannah Brown appeared before the Police Court Saturday morning to answer the charge of murdering her infant. It will be remembered that on Sunday morning, July 19th, the accused, who lived on the premises of R. J. Glinn, No. 1115 Moore street, Sheep Hill, gave birth to a child and killed it. On the Saturday previous she complained of being unwell, and on Sunday morning felt so badly that Mr. Glinn, not knowing the nature of her malady, suggested she bad better go to her mother's house, No. 1507 Cary street, and he accordingly procured a wagon and started her away in it. After she had gone the dead body of a child was found in the stable, and all the indications pointed to her as the mother and the murderess. The body was placed in the hands of Coroner Taylor, who made a post-mortem, and found that it had been born alive. An inquest was held over the remains at the City Morgue, and the jury rendered a verdict that it came to its death at the hands of the aforesaid Hannah Brown. The Coroner i-sued his warrant for the arrest of Hannah, and it was served upon her; but owing to her then critical condition she was not removed to the station-house. She having sufficiently recovered appeared before the Police Justice on Saturday, and after a full hearing was sent on to the grand jury of the Hustings Court for the first Monday in September-to-day week.

They partook of the refreshments, chatted over the scenes and incidents of their trip to the mountains, and finally retired to their homes.

awful heat.
But you still have a chance to buy fuel cheap;
But where to buy you do not know,
For every one say they sell so low.
Now, I can give you a little sid,
For to buy of some you may well be afraid;
For some are said to give likht weight—
Some sell coal filled with state,
So do not buy of any such men.
If you do you will get cheated in the end.
Now, I will tell you where to go,
And although he does not sell so mightly low,
But if you buy a ton of coal
You will gee 2.000 pour ds as pure as gold;
And if you buy a cord of wood
It will be four feet long, and just as good
As can be hid in this lown;
Seasoned, straight, without knots, and sound.
Now, unless I tell you where to get this fuel
You might go erazy, and that would be cruel;
So to keep you from getting ill
Go st once to W. J. McDOWELL.
He keeps at the corner of Seventh and Main,
And if he is not there take direct aim,
And exi to the corner of First and Broad
You will find I have been true as my word.
Now to the tadies I have just one word to say.
When you go down town just pass this way,
And leave your orders for wood and coal,
And I'll wish, hope, and pray that you may never
